ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Environmental Sustainability: "Harmony with Nature"

The concept of "Environmental Sustainability: Harmony with Nature" holds profound significance in the contemporary global context, as societies grapple with the escalating challenges posed by environmental degradation, climate change, and the unsustainable exploitation of natural resources. The significance of this paradigm extends beyond the realms of ecological conservation; it is a guiding principle that fosters a holistic, balanced approach to human interaction with the environment, aiming for a symbiotic coexistence that ensures the well-being of the planet and its inhabitants. This conference could serve as a platform for interdisciplinary discussions, knowledge exchange, and collaboration, fostering a deeper understanding of environmental issues and encouraging scientific advancements. The collaborative and interdisciplinary nature of such events, encourages global cooperation, and helps address complex environmental challenges through evidence-based approaches.

MANGALURU

Mangaluru, a coastal city in Karnataka, India, boasts a rich history as an important trade center on the Arabian Sea. Its diverse cultural influences are reflected in its architecture, from the Kadri Manjunath Temple to the 140 year old St Aloysius Chapel. The city also offers stunning beaches like Tannirbhavi and Panambur, alongside scenic backwaters perfect for boat cruises. Mangalorean cuisine is a unique blend of flavors, with seafood specialities and dishes like Kori Roti and Patrode being local favorites. The city celebrates various festivals throughout the year.

Modern Mangaluru is a thriving commercial center with industries like banking, IT, and healthcare. The New Mangalore Port plays a vital role in trade and commerce. The city is also an educational hub, attracting students from across the country. This vibrant and youthful atmosphere makes Mangaluru a truly captivating destination.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Authors are invited to submit abstracts relevant to the themes of the conference. To ensure a smooth and fair review process, please adhere to the following guidelines:

- Abstract Format: Abstracts should be submitted in English and structured with an introduction, methods, results, and conclusion, within a single paragraph. The maximum word count is 250 words. Use clear and concise language to convey the purpose, methods, results, and conclusions of your research or study.
- Title: Provide a descriptive title that accurately reflects the content of your abstract. Capitalize the first letter of each major word, but avoid using abbreviations or acronyms unless necessary.
- Author's Information: Include the names and affiliations of all contributing authors. Underline the presenting author's name and identify the corresponding author with an asterisk (*) followed by their email address for correspondence.
- Keywords: Include a list of 3-5 keywords that highlight the main topics or themes of your abstract. Choose terms that are relevant and specific to your research area.
- Content: Clearly state the objective or hypothesis of your study in the introduction, describe the methods or approach used, summarize the key findings or results, and conclude with the implications or significance of your work. Ensure that your abstract is structured logically and provides enough information for reviewers to evaluate its merit.
- Originality: Abstracts should represent original work that has not been previously published or presented at another conference. Any overlap with existing publications or presentations should be disclosed. Ensure that the content of your abstract is thoroughly revised and that plagiarism is kept below 10%.
- Formatting: Abstracts must strictly adhere to the formatting guidelines, including typesetting to A4 size, double-spacing with 1-inch margins, and using Times New Roman font size 12. The usage of special characters, symbols, or formatting styles such as italics must be avoided unless necessary for clarity.
- Please note that the abstract must be sent via email to iceshn2024@staloysius.edu.in with the subject line "ABSTRACT" written on it.
- (Poster size = W:3ft X H:4ft)

The abstracts of the conference will be published in the form of a souvenir with an ISBN number.
